matters of the HEART

"A year ago, I was diagnosed with Hypothyroidism. One of the symptoms of Hypothyroidism is Alopecia which caused my hair to start falling out. I was introduced to the Annique Forever Healthy OptiVite and within the first month my hair started growing back and my energy levels increased. I've been taking the multivitamin for two months and I feel great, I don't even feel the need to continue taking my chronic medication." Leslie Duminy

Consultant Profile

Melanie van Wyk from Pretoria attends training workshops at the Annique Home Office, using everything she has learned to equip her team by hosting monthly training workshops, Leaders meetings and one-on-one sessions with her Consultants. She takes the time to invest in her Leaders, teaching them that knowledge put into action is power and that the person is just as important as the business. Her team says she is a jewel with vast knowledge and skills, always ready to share a tip about how to grow your business. She is a strong motivator, always encouraging her Leaders to present training sessions as often as possible in order to grow their teams.

Business Opportunity

Annemarie Cronje, Bloemfontein

Annemarie is a true leader in this business and it reflects in her business growth. She joined Annique in 2000, and now her group sales have increased by 26% from 2015 to 2016. Annemarie embodies the Annique ethos, from the way she dresses to her exceptional product and business knowledge. She regularly hosts training, which is open to new and old Consultants, believing a refresher course is the only way to stay at your best. Her Consultants love her monthly coffee-hour meetings, which are especially popular. Her team says she is always humble, strategic and 100% committed to their success just as much as she is to her own. Her motto is 'believe in Annique and believe in yourself'.
