Later on I only used it twice a day – in the morning and at night. It rubs on easily and smoothly. After a few weeks, I noticed that my scar was healing very well. I would recommend this product to anyone."

Johannesburg – Sandra Kruger

Sandra is a lady with a heart for people. She sets the needs of others before her own and is consistently faithful in living out the true meaning of a helping hand in desperate times of need. Together with her team, Sandra set up a fund for people in need, and they contribute a part of their earnings to this group believing that you are blessed to be a blessing. Last year alone Sandra and her team raised R22 000 which they gave to the Cradle of Hope's House of Restoration where they offer a new life to women and children who come from abusive homes, helping them to get back on their feet, giving them back the dignity and worth that life has stolen from them. Sandra is a true inspiration to her team and the people around her, a living embodiment of what Annique stands for, carrying the heart of real Annique Angel.

KICK START YOUR BUSINESS

Sophia, from Namibia, has a passion for the Annique products which ensures her business is ever growing. Her Personal Sales growth amounted to a turnover of more than R600, 000 in 2016. Her passion for the Annique product range makes it easy for her to apply the one-meter rule whenever she meets someone new. When Sophia talks about the Annique products or the unique business opportunity, she bubbles over with enthusiasm and energy, which is hard to resist. Sophia regularly does product training with her team, using her knowledge of the Annique products to draw new clients and Consultants, even in a distant area, Tsumeb in Namibia.
