Skin Detox 30ml

Skin Detox contains Tiger's herb that aids in skin healing, together with macadamia nut oil, vitamin E and Rooibos. This unique treatment replaces essential fatty acids in the skin to boost overall skin health and appearance and reduces acne, pimples, pigmentation marks, symptoms of ageing and dullness.

VALUE R319

"I absolutely love Skin Detox! When I stop using it my skin breaks out with fine pimples around the cheek and chin area and looks dull. As soon as I start using Skin Detox again my skin looks radiant immediately."

Rooibos Restores

As one of the leading lifestyle and cosmeceutical brands, Annique utilises and embraces the restorative powers of Rooibos by developing skincare and body-care ranges inspired by the therapeutic Rooibos herb. Unlike many other products that contain toxic and artificial ingredients that could be harmful to pregnant or breastfeeding mothers and their children.

Rooibos is completely safe to use with no known disadvantages or side effects. One of Rooibos's many benefits is that it helps the body absorb iron, an important mineral when it comes to pregnancy and postpartum.
